Quake 2006 Off Season Training

Our 2006 season is just around the corner. Off season training has been underway for the past few months and training is just getting more intense as each week passes by. Our season opener game against the Santa Rosa Scorchers is on April 29, 2006.

For information on off season training or joining the California Quake organization contact us at (562) 637-2333 or email us at gm@californiaquakefootball.com
